

Premiere of Le Plan

February 22, 2011

Le Plan is a feature-length documentary on Habitations Jeanne-Mance. The film director, Isabelle Longtin, entered this living environment to depict a complex and multiethnic reality, made by solidarity and touching individual destinies.

This document highlights challenges linked to the intergenerational and multiethnic cohabitation and raises questions of cultural integration. To watch the trailer or buy the DVD, please click on the following link:
