

Danielle Juteau, directrice générale, received the 2011 Housing award

June 23, 2011

During the last congress of the Canadian Housing and Renewal Association (CHRA) taking place in Regina from 20th to 23rd June, Mrs. Danielle Juteau, directrice générale of Habitations Jeanne-Mance, received the 2011 CMHC Housing award.

This award celebrates the thirty years' experience of Mrs Juteau in the development and management of various housing projects, including these last ten years at Habitations Jeanne-Mance. Also, her expertise and commitment shown throughout her career were highlighted, as well as her active role as congress chairman for CHRA during these last two years.
